Abraham was very, very old, and his son Isaac was now a big, grown-up man! Abraham wanted Isaac to find a wonderful wife to love. He looked at his trusted helper, Eliezer, and said, "Please, go on a long journey to find a wife for Isaac. God will help you!"

Wave goodbye with both hands and say, "Bye-bye, Eliezer! Have a safe trip!"

Eliezer packed heavy bags and loaded them onto his camels. Walking across the hot, sandy desert was hard work. Eliezer wondered, "How will I ever find the right helper for Isaac?" So, he stopped and prayed to God for help.

Put your hands together like you are praying. Close your eyes tightly and say, "God, please help me!"

Eliezer made a special plan. He prayed, "When I ask a young woman for a drink of water, let her say yes, and then let her offer to give water to my thirsty camels, too!"

Finally, he arrived at a dusty town and stopped by a deep water well.

*Pat your knees up and down to make the sound of marching feet.
Thump, thump, thump! Now stop, and wipe the sweat off your forehead!*

Just then, a kind and beautiful woman named Rebekah came to the well to get water. Eliezer walked up and asked, "May I please have a drink of water?" Rebekah smiled and gave him a big jar of cold water.

Pretend to lift a heavy water jar. Tip it forward, make a loud drinking sound—Glug, glug, glug—and say, "Ahhh, refreshing!"

Then, Rebekah looked at the tired animals and said, "I will get water for your camels, too!" Camels drink a lot of water! Rebekah ran back and forth to the well, pulling up heavy buckets of water for all ten camels.

Let's help Rebekah feed the camels! Pretend to pull a heavy rope up from the well. Pull! Pull! Now make thirsty camel drinking sounds: Slurp, slurp, slurp!

Eliezer smiled big because he knew God answered his prayer! Rebekah invited Eliezer to her house to meet her family. He asked if Rebekah would move away to marry Isaac. Rebekah bravely said, "Yes, I will go!"

Jump up and down, clap your hands, and cheer, "Hooray! She said yes!"

Rebekah and Eliezer climbed up onto the tall camels. They rode all the way back to Isaac's home.

When they arrived, Isaac walked out to meet them. He loved Rebekah right away, and they got married!

Climb up onto your imaginary camel. Bounce up and down gently and make riding sounds: Clippity-clop, clippity-clop! Now, blow a sweet kiss to Isaac and Rebekah!

Prayer:

Dear God, thank You for hearing when we pray. In Jesus' name, Amen.
